“Books are not absolutely dead things, but do contain a potency of life in them to be as active as that soul was whose progeny they are ; nay, they do preserve, as in a vial, the purest efficacy and extraction of that living intellect that bred them. Unless wariness be used, as good almost kill a man as kill a good book ; who kills a man kills a good reasonable creature, God’s image ; but he who destroys a good book, kills reason itself—kills the image of God, as it were, in the eye.”—John Milton.

ANCKETILL (W. R.)—The Adventures of Mick Callighin, M.P. By W. R. ANCKETILL. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 75c; Paper 50c.

"The author is apparently a Milesian 'to the manner born,' his rendition of the brogue being superior to that generally met with in books of this class. The humour is so rich and the descriptive power of the author so forcible, that the reader will not be likely to lay the work down until he has finished it."—Toronto Mail.

"A pretty, well told story, which is creditable to its author's talents and will well repay perusal."—Toronto Mail.

BEGG (A.)—Practical Hand Book and Guide to Manitoba and the North West. By ALEXANDER BEGG. Price 25c.

This Guide contains information on every subject useful to persons contemplating going to Manitoba or the North West. It is undoubtedly the best and cheapest work yet published regarding this country.

BENNER (S.)—Benner's Prophecies of Future Ups and Downs in Prices. By SAMUEL BENNER. Cloth, 75c.; Paper Cover, 50c.

This little work cannot be too highly praised. Its value to the Merchant and Farmer is incalculable, fortelling plainly what years to make money on pig iron, hogs, corn, and other merchandise.

BLACK (Wm.)—Madcap Violet. By WM. BLACK, author of "A Princess of Thule," "Three Feathers," &c. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

"Will Mr. Black tell us by what art it is that he makes his men and women so life-like and instinct, with so lovable a kind of life, so sweet and companionable?"—Examiner.

By EDWARD BULWER, LORD LYTTON. Cloth, neat, $1.50.

"The fable of the Poem is undeniably well conceived. The intent is distributed rather than concentrated. We are left with no cloudy impressions, everything is bodied clearly forth, and it is plain the author did not write his poem at random from one line to another, but constituted it according to a complete and carefully worked out plan."—The London Times.

"In many respects 'Kenelm Chillingly' is a worthy addition to the collection of Master-pieces of Literature, upon which the fame of their creator will depend."—The Toronto Mail.

BULWER (Edward, Lord Lytton)—Pausanias. By the late LORD LYTTON. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

"To the classical reader, this work will be highly interesting; at every turn he meets familiar faces."—Sarnia Canadian.

"It is worthy of perusal."—Free Press, Ottawa.

"It is of great interest."—Toronto Mail.

"It bears the impress of masterly genius."—Collingwood Bulletin!

BULWER (Edward Lord Lytton)—The Parisians. A Novel. By EDWARD BULWER, LORD LYTTON. Paper Cover, $1.00; Cloth, neat, $1.50.

This pretty volume is the last that will ever be written by Lord Lytton. Unfortunately for the world, the author was not spared to give the work its closing chapters, but they have been added by his son 'Owen Meredith.' There can be no doubt this book will have a large sale. It should be in the hands of every admirer of the deceased nobleman."—Northern Ensign.

BESANT & RICE.—The Golden Butterfly. A Novel. By WALTER BESANT & JAMES RICE, authors of "Ready-Money Mortiboy," etc. Cloth, neat, $1.00; Paper Cover, 50c.

"This may be called a clever book without much danger of protest from anybody, and we don't think that anyone will regret having read it."—London (England) Academy.

"A story of great interest."—Quebec Mercury.

"The latest work of those clever English story-tellers Besant and Rice. It does not contain a dull page. The most interesting novel of the year."—St. John Daily News.

BURRITT (E.)—Chips from Many Blocks. By ELIHU BURRITT, author of "Ten-Minute Talks," "Walks in the Dark Country," etc. Crown 8vo. 352 pages. Cloth, $1.00.

The author in a letter to the publishers says:—"This is my last and best book. My readers will deem it the most interesting that I ever produced."

CARLETON (Will)—Farm Legends. By WILL CARLETON, author of "Farm Ballads," &c., &c. Illustrated. Crown 8vo. Boards 50c.

"The paper, print, binding and illustrations are as pretty as could be turned out in English or American cities. The ballads are charming—full of the atmosphere of home and country life and human thoughts and affections."—Toronto Daily Mail.

CHAMBERS (Julius)—A Mad World. By an Amateur Lunatic, (JULIUS CHAMBERS.) Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

"The scheme was cleverly contrived and admirably carried out, and Mr. Chambers gives a very dramatic account of the whole affair . . . but his account of the game of cards, in which Frisco played casino, Senator poker, Thaddeus euchre, and he himself whist—the latter game being the one which the party had been supposed to sit down to—is indeed a strange exhibition of the vagaries of mad mortality."—The Spectator, London, England.

COOKE (John E.)—Canolles: The Fortunes of a Partisan of '81. By JOHN E. COOKE. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

A remarkable romance. Each of Mr. Cooke's former works have reached the great sale of nearly a quarter of a million copies in the United States and Canada.

COLLINS (W.)—The Two Destinies. A Novel. By WILKIE COLLINS, author of "Man and Wife," "The Law and the Lady," etc. Cloth, neat, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

"This fascinating story is one of the most subtle narratives which Mr. Collins has thus far written. It is full of the most intense interest."—St. John Watchman.

COLLINS (W.)—The Haunted Hotel; A Mystery of Modern Venice. By WILKIE COLLINS. Paper Cover 50c.; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

COLLINS (W.)—Man and Wife. By WILKIE COLLINS. Paper Covers, 75c.; Oxford style, neat, $1.00.

"The chief object of this work is to show up the absurdity of Matrimonial alliances that may be, and in many cases are formed in the British Islands, under the peculiar laws respecting marriage, which prevail in Ireland and Scotland. Mr. Collins shows that what is a legal marriage in one Kingdom is not a marriage at all in another kingdom, and that a couple married in a certain way in Ireland or Scotland might be punished for living together in England. It is a most readable book, and reflects great credit on the author."—Toronto Daily Telegraph.

COLLINS (W.) Poor Miss Finch. By WILKIE COLLINS. Paper Covers, 50c.; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"The author sustains his reputation, and produces a book intensely interesting realistic in details, and showing deep sight into Character in the development of the dramatis personæ."—Toronto Express.

COLLINS (W.)—The Law and the Lady, By WILKIE COLLINS. Paper Cover, 50c.; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"Mr. Wilkie Collins' novel is one of his strongest and best. It is founded on the weak points of the law in Scotland which allows a Jury to find a verdict of 'Not Proven,' and sends the accused forth on much the same footing as a Ticket-of-Leave Man."—The American Booksellers Guide.

COLLINS (W.)—The Frozen Deep and the Dream Woman. In one Volume, By WILKIE COLLINS, Paper Cover, 40c; Cloth, neat, 60c.

"Both stories are good, and the book beautifully got up."—London Prototype.

"These two stories are among the most characteristic of the Author, and vividly dramatic both in conception and manner. The admirers of Wilkie Collins, and they are legion, will be glad to add this pretty volume to their collection."—The Toronto Globe.

COLLINS (W.)—The Dead Alive. By WILKIE COLLINS. Paper Cover, 25c; Cloth, neat, 50c.

"A pleasantly told incident, and in the Author's usual style."—New York Sun.

"This story was suggested to the author by a trial which actually took place in the United States early in the present century, and is one which cannot fail to interest the reader. We like it, and can cordially recommend it."—Halifax Chronicle.

COLLINS (W.)—The New Magdalen. By WILKIE COLLINS. Paper Cover, 50c; Cloth, neat, 90c.

"The 'New Magdalen,' by the well-known and popular story writer, Wilkie Collins, is full of deep and absorbing interest."—London Evening Herald and Prototype.

"The book, as a novel, is one of great power, is very interesting to the growing literature of a most important question, and will cause much discussion, which of itself is good."—St. John Globe.

"A well written book, and one that should be read by all who take an interest in fallen humanity."—Guardian.

There was no production of its day which caused so profound a sensation as 'Dame Europa's School.' The present war in Europe has led to this sequel being brought out, and there can be no doubt that it will produce as marked an effect on the public mind as the first production of this gifted author. It is lively, instructive, sarcastic.

DAVIN (N. F.)—The Earl of Beaconsfield. By NICHOLAS FLOOD DAVIN, author of "The Fair Grit," etc., etc. Crown 8vo. Paper Covers, 25c.

"Mr. Davin has, we think, succeeded in supplying the public with what will be welcomed as a valuable addition to our literature."—Stratford Weekly.

"Mr. Davin is to be congratulated on the possession of the rich vein of humour developed in the 'Fair Grit,' which appears at a time that will secure to it plenty of readers."—St. John Telegraph.

DESART—Children of Nature. A Story of Modern London. By the EARL OF DESART. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

"The Earl of Desart is unquestionably a bold man. He has dared to tell the truth. In 'Children of Nature' he has put aside the curtain of conventionality and has displayed to the world society as it really is. . . . The strong sense, the power and the truthfulness of this story will have an irresistible attraction. There is a caricature of the Century Club which is as brilliant as anything of the kind ever done."—London (Eng.) Morning Advertiser.

FAWCETT (Mrs. M. G.)—Janet Doncaster By MRS. M. G. FAWCETT (wife of Professor Fawcett, England). Paper Covers, 50c.; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

“Mrs. Fawcett’s novel is good—that is to say, a clever work by a clever woman.”—The Athenæum, London.

FLEMING (M. A.)—Kate Danton. By MAY AGNES FLEMING, author of “Norine’s Revenge,” Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

“Mrs. Fleming’s stories are growing more and more popular every day. Their delineations of character, life-like conversations, flashes of wit, constantly varying scenes, and deeply interesting plots, combine to place their author in the very first rank of modern novelists.”—New York Weekly.

FLEMING (M. A.)—Norine’s Revenge. By MAY AGNES FLEMING, author of “Kate Danton,” etc., etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

“Mrs. Fleming never forgets that she is a lady, and she has given us a very interesting and a very clever story.”—Montreal Herald.

FORTNIGHTLY REVIEW (The). Edited by JOHN MORLEY. Price per annum, $5.00; Single Copies, 50c.

We have made arrangements with Messrs. Chapman & Hall, London, England, for the right to publish for this Continent the above Monthly Review, and for a duplicate set of stereotype plates; this enables us to publish each month an exact fac-simile of the English edition. It is in no respect different or inferior to the original, and sells for one-half the price.

FARJEON (B. L.)—Solomon Isaacs. A Novel. By B. L. FARJEON, author of “Bread and Cheese and Kisses,” etc. Splendidly Illustrated. Demy 8vo. 50c.

“Mr. Farjeon has been called the new Dickens. He more than deserves the title. The mantle of the great English novelist has, indeed, fallen on worthy shoulders.”—New York Globe.

FUTURE PUNISHMENT. The Question Considered in a Series of Papers on Canon Farrar’s Eternal Hope. By Rev. Professor Salmon, D.D., Principal Tulloch, Rev. J. Baldwin Brown, Rev. William Arthur, Rev. John Hunt, D.D., Professor J. H. Jellett, Rev. Edward White, and Rev. R. F. Littledale, D.C.L. Crown 8vo. Paper, 25c.

“Most interesting and able. The writers are some of the most scholarly and erudite men in England. Their utterances carry a certain weight with them.”—Frederickton Reporter.

FROUDE (J. A.)—Science and Theology. Ancient and Modern. By JAMES ANTHONY FROUDE, author of "History of England," "History of Ireland," &c., &c., and Sovereignty of Ethics, by RALPH WALDO EMERSON. Crown 8vo. Paper, 25c.

"Two remarkable papers by two of the foremost authors of the age. Sure to be read with great interest everywhere."—Boston Courier.

GUTHRIE, (D. K. and C. J.)—The Autobiography and Memoir of Thomas Guthrie, D.D. By his sons the REV. D. K. GUTHRIE, M.A., and C. J. GUTHRIE, M.A. 1 Vol. Demy 8vo. With Steel Portrait. A New Cheap Edition. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.50.

"One of the most interesting books recently published."—Spectator.

"Of great interest, even as a mere piece of reading, and of no small value as a contribution to Scotch history."—Scotsman.

"Both interest and amusement will be found in this picture of a stirring time in which an eager, busy nature played its part."—Saturday Review.

GIBBON (C.)—In Honour Bound. By CHARLES GIBBON. Paper Cover, 50c.; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"Charming as the fictions of Charles Gibbon are, viewed as romances merely, there is in them so deep a knowledge of human nature under trial and temptation, that they seem like narratives of real experience. The volume before us strikingly exemplifies this characteristic of his works, and is one of the most delightful novels of the day."—The Toronto Globe.

GIBBON (C.)—What will the World Say? By CHARLES GIBBON. Paper Cover, 50c.; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"We think this book one of the best of its author and the season."—The New York Mail.

"The plot is laid in England, and is very well carried out. The story is very interesting, and will repay perusal."—Brant Union.

GAY (F. D.)—The Prince of Wales in India. By F. DREW GAY. Profusely Illustrated. Crown 8vo. Cloth, gold and black, $1.00; Paper, 50c.

"A lasting memorial of an interesting journey."—Daily Telegraph.

"Will no doubt find an extensive public, and be read by them with interest."—Nonconformist.

GARNIER (J. H.)—Prince Pedro A Drama By J. H. GARNIER, M.D. Cloth, $1.00.

"The plot is original and deeply interesting. The style is pure and clear. In the picture of life and delineation of character, the hand of a master is present."

GARNEAU (F. X.)—History of Canada. From the Time of its Discovery till the Union of 1840-41. Translated from "L'Histoire du Canada" of F. X. GARNEAU, Esq., and accompanied with Illustrative notes by ANDREW BELL. Third edition, revised, in two volumes. Demy 8vo. Cloth, $4.00 set.

The press acknowledge that this is the best History of Canada published.

GRANT (Rev. George M.)—Ocean to Ocean. By Rev. GEORGE M. GRANT. New and Revised Edition, with map and numerous illustrations. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00. Paper Covers, 50c.

This is, by the universal acknowledgment of press and public, the most complete work on the "Great Lone Land" of British North America which has ever been published. The present edition has been thoroughly revised and corrected by the author, and a new chapter has been added, which brings down to the latest moment the official and other information bearing upon the vast territory so graphically and fully treated of. The illustrations have all been newly executed. It is a book of rare value.

"No inquirer can fix a direct and clear-sighted gaze towards Truth, who is casting side-glances all the while on the prospects of his soul."—Martineau.

"This celebrated novelist is called the Dickens of Germany."—Publisher Weekly.

HAMILTON (J. C.)—The Prairie Province. By J. C. HAMILTON, M. A., LL. B. Sketches of Travel from Lake Ontario to Lake Winnipeg, and an account of the geographical position, civil institutions, climate, inhabitants, productions, trade and resources of the Red River Valley, with Maps of the North-west and Manitoba, Plan of Winnipeg, view of Fort Garry, and other illustrations. Crown 8vo. Paper, $1.00; Cloth, $1.25; Cloth, gilt edges, $1.50.

The book contains a new map of Manitoba and the North-west, and of the Dawson Route, expressly drawn and engraved for this work. The new settlements, reserves, and railway routes, and District of Keewatin are shown on the map.

"The descriptive element is, of course, very prominent, and is both graphical and interesting, while the historical and statistical information will be of great use to those who have not had access to other sources of information."—Toronto Globe.

HARLAND (M.)—My Little Love. By MARION HARLAND, author of "Alone," "Nemesis," "Common Sense in the Household," etc. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

"This work is written in the easy, flowing style for which the author has been celebrated. If it is not pretentious, it is at least engaging, and will afford many a pleasant hour's reading to those who prefer the trifles to the more solid things of life."—London Free Press.

HARTE (B.)—Gabriel Conroy. By BRET HARTE. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

"'Gabriel Conroy' is written in the author's most original vein, and altogether the story has proved to be one of Bret Harte's MASTERPIECES."—Kendall Mercury.

HARTE (B.)—Thankful Blossom. By BRET HARTE, author of "Gabriel Conroy," etc. 32mo. Cloth, 50c; Paper, 30c.

"A perfect idyl."—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

"Mr. Harte has added considerable to his already well established reputation, by his charming tale of "Thankful Blossom."—Montreal Star.

"The story is delightfully written."—Owen Sound Times.

Home Cook Book. By the Ladies of Toronto. Published for the benefit of the Hospital for Sick Children. Crown 8vo. Oil Cloth, Cover, $1.00.

This book is the joint effort of the publishers and a number of Toronto ladies. The receipts contained in the book are supplied by the ladies, and none have been given by them except such as have stood the test of experience in their own households. Unquestionably it is one of the most valuable Cook Books ever published.

HALL (Dr. W. W.)—Dyspepsia and its kindred Diseases. By W. W. HALL, M.D., author of "Health by Good Living," "How to Live Long," "Health at Home," etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00.

This is the last work of the late Dr. Hall, and it is admitted, by professional judges, to be a very valuable book. It gives, in concise form, an account of how to cure, prevent, and treat oneself, not alone for dyspepsia, but a great many other diseases, which the Doctor claims arise from the same cause as this disease. This work should be in every house in the country.

HOLLAND (Dr. J. G.)—Nicholas Minturn; A Study in a Story. By J. G. HOLLAND, author of "Arthur Bonnicastle," "Seven Oaks," etc. One vol. 8vo., with full page illustrations. Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 50c.

"The elucidation of the pauper and tramp question forms, in fact, the leading theme of the book; for, like Dr. Holland's other stories, this is a 'novel with a purpose.' A large part of the interest lies in the relations of Nicholas, the hero, to the 'dead beats' of a great city, and his extraordinary experiments in their reclamation.

"But there are one or two love stories involved, and Dr. Holland has given his readers some characters evidently studied from life, and not from books, namely, Mr. Benson, who is the tragic figure on the scene, Mrs. Coates, and Captain Hanks, that 'hard-working and slow-saving man.'"—Belford's Monthly.

HISTORICUS.—History of King William III, Prince of Orange. By HISTORICUS, of Belfast, Ireland. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 75c; Paper Covers, 50c.

"The volume before us supplies a much felt want. Within the compass of an ordinary book we have here a comprehensive, intelligible and well-written history of one of England's greatest kings."—Orange Sentinel.

"The present work gives this in short compass, and will doubtless be read by many for whom larger or more elaborate historical works would not be so convenient."—Toronto Mail.

HOWELLS (W. D.)—Their Wedding Journey. By W. D. HOWELLS, author of "A Chance Acquaintance," etc. Uniform with "One Summer," and "Helen's Babies." Cloth, 75c; Paper, 50c.

"Their Wedding Journey" is a novel, describing in beautiful language Canadian scenery from Niagara to Quebec.

"The story is well told, the incidents on the way are delicately and neatly sketched, and the plan of the story is clever and piquant."—St. John Watchman.

HOWELLS (W. D.)—A Chance Acquaintance. By W. D. HOWELLS, author of "Their Wedding Journey. Uniform with "One Summer," and "Helen's Babies." Cloth, 75c; Paper, 50c.

"The writings of W. D. Howells are masterpieces of literary workmanship, resembling the products of those cunning artificers who add one or two thousand per cent. to the value of the raw material by their incomparable way of working it up."—Edw. P. Whipple, in the First Century of the Republic.

HOLMES (Mrs.) Edith Lyle. By Mrs. MARY J. HOLMES, author of "Lena Rivers," "Darkness and Daylight," etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

"Mrs. Holmes has the faculty of writing a very entertaining book, and all her novels meet with a ready sale. 'Edith Lyle' is one of her best stories, and in its present form is exceedingly attractive."—Watchman St John.

"A novel of growing interest. Mrs. Holmes is a genuine artist."—Peterborough Review.

HABBERTON (J.)—Helen's Babies: With some account of their ways, innocent, crafty, angelic, impish, witching and repulsive. Also, a partial record of their actions during ten days of their existence. By THEIR LATEST VICTIM. Illustrated. 12mo. Cloth, Gold, 50c; Paper Cover, 30c.

"It is full of richness."—Ottawa Citizen.

"'Helen's Babies' is one of the most comical books we have seen for some time."—Perth Expositor.

"It is as fresh as it is life-like. It is overflowing with good-nature and humor."—Globe, St. John.

HABBERTON (J.)—Other People's Children. Sequel to "Helen's Babies," By JOHN HABBERTON, author of "Helen's Babies," "Scripture Club of Valley Rest," etc. Cloth, 50c; Paper, 30c.

HABBERTON. (J.)—Scripture Club of Valley Rest, or, Everybody's Neighbour. By JOHN HABBERTON, author of "Other People's Children," "Helen's Babies," etc. Cloth, 50c; Paper, 30c.

"Mr. Habberton writes here out of a deeper experience than he has made use of heretofore, and his pages contain not a little of both counsel and comfort for a weary and heavy laden humanity. As this book is so certain of being widely read, we are glad that its tone is so wholesome."—Boston Literary World.

INGELOW (Jean)—The New Poems of Jean Ingelow, J. G. Whittier, and H. W. Longfellow. 1 Vol. 8vo. Cloth, elegant, $1.00; Boards, 50c. This volume contains "The Shepherd Lady," and other poems, by Jean Ingelow; "Mabel Martin," by J. G. Whittier; "The Masque of Pandora," and other poems, by H. W. Longfellow.

"MABEL MARTIN."—"It is a simple, tender, lovely idyl."—New York Tribune.

KAVANAGH (B. & J.)—The Pearl Fountain. By BRIDGET AND JULIA KAVANAGH. 8vo. With 30 illustrations, by J. Moyer Smith. Cloth, Gold and Black, $1.00.

"A rara avis among books for children. The stories are brightly and beautifully told, and the illustrations unique in art character."—New York Publishers' Weekly.

The high quality and brilliancy of the engravings in this volume, together with its low retail price, will make it a favourite gift book.

"Every page of this funny book contains something worth laughing at. The illustrations, which are numerous, do credit to those wonderful artists, Nast, Darley, Fredericks, Etynge, White and Stephens."—Inter-Ocean.

LESPERANCE (John)—The Bastonnais: A Tale of the American Invasion of Canada in 1775-76. By JOHN LESPERANCE. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

This is a story whose main events centre around one of the most thrilling and interesting periods of Canadian history. It is written by the editor of the Canadian Illustrated News, and as it passed through the pages of that journal from week to week, attracted a great deal of interest. It is an admirable contribution to our yet nascent Canadian literature.

This book presents the following new features and advantages:—Classic standard selections; selections from the best and the most recent productions of living authors, favourite readings of Vandenhoff, Bellew, Mrs. Scott Siddons, and other eminent readers; Gems from Newspapers and Periodicals. The original matter consists of Hints and Suggestions on Public Reading, the Culture and Management of the Voice, Gesticulation, etc., etc.

LINTON (Mrs. E. L.)—Patricia Kemball. By Mrs. E. LYNN LINTON. Paper Cover, 50c. Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"This is a novel drawn from English rural life, that exhaustless mine of interesting character and quaint customs, and is well deserving of a place in our libraries."—St. John Tribune.

"This story will prove highly interesting and attractive to the casual reader."—Ottawa Times.

"'Owen Meredith' has given us a handsome volume, which is sure to find its way into every library in Canada. It amply repay perusal."—London Advertiser.

LONGFELLOW (H. W.)—The New Poems of Jean Ingelow, J. G. Whittier, and H. W. Longfellow. 1 Vol. Crown 8vo. Cloth, elegant, $1.00; Boards, 50c. This volume contains "The Masque of Pandora" and other poems by H. W. LONGFELLOW.

"He never trifles with his muse, nor writes with an air of affectation, such as we often see in poets of even good standing. He never sacrifices sense to sound, nor indulges in rare words. His style is of the greatest simplicity, . . . nor does he indulge in hidden meanings or obscure metaphors. He accomplishes his purpose without theatrical aid and the precarious effect of red fire. He does not clothe his characters in the cast-off garments which figured in the images of the works of the old poets."—Evenings in the Library, by George Stewart, Jr.

"This work is written in Dr. Macdonald's usual style. It may not compare in point of interest with some of his previous works, but still it is a very readable book."—Manchester Guardian.

"The power of a living example is not sufficiently understood in City Missionary work, but this volume will do much to bring it before the public. The story purports to be an Autobiographical Sketch by the daughter of that Vicar with whom the 'Seaboard Parish' has made us well acquainted."—Montreal Daily Witness.

"This remarkable novel is described as an Autobiography, and, though a work of fiction, does strike the reader as the story of an actual life lived by the teller. George Macdonald is a Master, and 'Wilfrid Cumbermede' is, we think beyond his former works in point of interest and force, popular as they have been and are."—Toronto Express.

"Mr. MacLachlan has produced a handsome volume, and one which we are sure will be highly prized by Canadians. The portrait is striking, like the 'Old Man eloquent.'"—Guelph Mercury.

New and cheap edition, $1.50.

The following extract is from the "Memoir" itself; it shows that Dr. Macleod thought of such a work as the present:—

"From his Journal, Oct., 11th, 4.45 a.m.

Have been reading a little of 'Brainhard.' NEXT TO THE BIBLE, Christian Biography is the most profitable. In as far as it is true, it is a revelation of the living God through His living Church."

MACLEOD (N.)—The Gold Thread. By the late NORMAN MACLEOD, D.D. Square 8vo, beautifully illustrated. Cloth, full gilt, $1.00.

"This is one of the prettiest, as it is one of the best children's books in the language. Wherever there are children, if our advice is taken, there will be a 'Gold Thread.'"—Caledonian Mercury.

"It is a charming story for children, and as a holiday gift for little folks it is admirably suitable, being richly bound and profusely illustrated."—Stratford Beacon.

MACLEOD (N.)—The Old Lieutenant and His Son. By the late NORMAN MACLEOD, D.D. Illustrated. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c.

"It may be added, in conclusion, that Mr. Oxenham's letter deserves serious perusal at a time when men are proving all things and, endeavouring to hold fast to that which is good."—Canadian Monthly.

OLIPHANT (Mrs.)—Whiteladies. By Mrs. OLIPHANT. Paper Cover, 50c.; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

“As a whole this is a very interesting novel, instructive without being didactic, entertains also, with no obtrusive pretensions to humour.”—Canadian Monthly.

“The writer has bestowed great pains on this work, and it will be ranked as one of her best.”—London Herald.

PINKERTON (A.)—The Detective and the Somnambulist. By ALLAN PINKERTON, author of “The Expressman and Detective,” “Claude Melnotte,” etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper Covers, 50c. Profusely and beautifully illustrated with full page engravings. Bound in the best style, with black and gold ornamentation.

“Mr. Pinkerton has met with very curious adventures in the course of his detective experience, and he has turned certain of them to excellent account in the present volume.”—New York Graphic.

PINKERTON (A.)—Claude Melnotte as a Detective; and other Stories. By ALLAN PINKERTON, author of “The Expressman and the Detective,” etc. Illustrated. Paper Cover, 50c.; Cloth, $1.00.

“The stories are told in a straightforward manner; and the appearance of the volume is most creditable to the publishers.”—The Journal of Education.

PAYN (J.)—Walter’s Word. By JAMES PAYN. Paper Cover, 50c.; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

“This story is of great interest, not only as a mere romance, but for the remarkably clear idea it gives of the character and designs of the Sicilian brigands, into whose hands some of the chief actors of the book fall. The various persons moving in ‘Walter’s Word’ are drawn with a reality which would seem to indicate that they are from the life, and without entering upon a description of the plot, it may be described as full of incident of an absorbing kind. Mr. Payn’s novels are always extremely good—this is one of his best, and will undoubtedly be widely popular.”—The Toronto Mail.

POSTAL GUIDE—The Canadian Official Postal Guide; being an Alphabetical List of Post Offices in Canada, the Chief Regulations of the Post Office, Rates of Postage, and other information. Revised and published quarterly by Authority of the Postmaster-General. Limp Cloth cover, 50c.; or $1.50 per annum.

READE (C.)—A Terrible Temptation. By CHARLES READE.

Paper Covers, 50c.; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"This new story from the pen of Mr. Reade challenges the attention of all novel readers. The style is light and easy, progressing from point to point without a perceptible jar, and it will give many an hour of pleasant employment to all classes of readers."—Philadelphia Age.

READE (C.)—The Wandering Heir. By CHARLES READE.

Paper Cover, 50c ; Cloth, neat, 75c.

"This is a charming story, written in Mr. Reade's best style, a thrilling sensation, the plot capitally conceived and admirably carried out."—Ottawa Free Press.

"This is a story founded on an incident in Irish History. It is pathetic, and written in this charming author's vigorous style."—Dublin News.

Rose-Belford's Canadian Monthly: $3.00 per annum in advance ; single copies, 25c.

"At last Canada has got a first-class magazine of her own. Every Canadian should subscribe for this ably conducted periodical. Rich in illustrated articles, serials, sketches, essays and poetry, it is also strong in its departments, and purely literary papers. The publishers show great enterprise in maintaining the character of the monthly in the spirited way in which they do. If you want the cheapest and best magazine published in the Dominion, get 'Rose-Belford's Canadian Monthly.'"—St. John Daily News.

"A masterly magazine."—Perth Times.

"Wilkie Collins, Goldwin Smith, Dr. J. G. Holland, Ed. Eggleston, Prof. Lyall, J. M. LeMoine, and others, write regularly for the pages of the new monthly—a great inducement to subscribers."—Quebec Chronicle.

ROBINSON (F. W.)—The Romance of a Back Street. By

"This is a novelette which will repay the time required to read it. The reader will be pleased with the story."—Toronto Leader.

ROBINSON. Paper Cover, 50c ; Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"This is a splendid work by a popular author. Mr. Robinson's name is now almost a 'household word,' and it is only necessary for us to say that 'Second-Cousin Sarah' reflects great credit on its author."—The National.

collection of Readings, Recitations and Dialogues. Edited by G. M. ROSE. Paper Cover, 30c ; Cloth, 50c.

"The Temperance community are greatly indebted to Mr. Rose for this work. It will fill a blank in our Divisions and Temples, and help us to pass away a pleasant evening."—Canada Temperance Advocate.

"It contents are of a high order of merit."—London Advertiser.

"The collection will attract favor. The selections are of excellent merit."—London Free Press.

No modern preacher in Canada has captivated the affections and conquered the hearts of his hearers so completely as Mr. Rainsford. Thousands daily listened to his simple and yet eloquent words in St. James' Cathedral, Toronto. They will be pleased to have his Sermons and Bible Readings in a complete form ; while the many thousands who only know him by reputation, will be delighted to peruse his discourses. The cabinet photographs are alone worth the price of the book.

SMILES (S.)—Thrift ; or, How to get on in the World, By SAMUEL SMILES, author of "Self Help," "Character," etc. Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"A companion volume to 'Self-Help.' It is full of truths and good advice to the young man entering business or professional life. It is a complete guide to prosperity. It is a book for the times. It is a work which none can do without it."—New York Times.

SALM-SALM (Princess.)—Ten Years of My Life. By Princess SALM-SALM (the Canadian Princess). Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00 ; Paper Covers, 50c. With portrait of Princess.

"Striking out for herself while young, in her teens, she was first a waiter girl in a Vermont Hotel. Subsequently she distinguished herself in a circus, and afterwards passed on to the boards of an American theatre. It was as an actress that the Prince Salm-Salm, who was a wild, roving character, met the Phillipsburg lass in Washington, and becoming fascinated with her charms, for she was unmistakably beautiful, proposed, and married her."—St. John's (Quebec) News.

Dr. Hodgins, Deputy Minister of Education, in a Review speaks in the highest terms of this work, and recommends it to all students as the simplest and cheapest book of the kind.

SCHULTE (Rev. J.)—Roman Catholicism, Old and New, from the stand point of the Infallibility Doctrine. By JOHN SCHULTE, D.D., Ph. D. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00 ; Full gilt, $1.50.

"It is the most vivacious bit of hers which we have read for a long time."—Canadian Illustrated News, Montreal.

"Evenings in the Library" contains graphic descriptions and criticisms of the following well-known celebrities:—Carlyle, Bryant, Longfellow, Whittier, Holmes, Emerson and others.

"A royal road to the study of literature."—New York Tribune.

"These sketches are presented in the form of 'talks,' or familiar lectures to young people, and appear to be just in their appreciation of the genius possessed by each of the subjects introduced. For a literary club which desires to become conversant with the great American Masters of Song, this is an excellent introduction."—Chicago Evening Journal.

STEWART (Geo. Jr.)—Canada under the Administration of Lord Dufferin. By GEO. STEWART, Jr. Cloth, Demy 8vo., with Lithographic portrait, 24 x 30, $3.00; also in Half Calf and Morocco bindings.

"We predict for it the most extensive sale of any book ever published in Canada. The popularity of the Governor-General, the ability and literary skill of the author and the well-known liberality and taste of the publishers, will ensure that end."—St. John Daily News.

"Canada under the administration of Lord Dufferin, is a work which every public-spirited inhabitant of the Dominion will be eager to purchase and own. As its name implies, it will be a thoroughly able resumé of the noble Earl's career as Governor-General of Canada. All the important questions which have arisen from time to time in our political and social history, will be discussed in an impartial and satisfactory manner. The Pacific Railway problem—the British Columbia troubles—the De Boucherville embroglio, and other noteworthy events, will be dealt with at length. No such work has ever been offered to the public, and its sale and popularity will be at once immense, and unsurpassed by any work ever attempted in Canada before. No expense will be spared to make the volume a credit to Canada, a credit to ourselves, and a credit to the world. The extraordinary popularity of our esteemed Governor-General, the great value of the book and its wonderful and historic interest, will ensure this. His Excellency's magnificent speeches, those terse and delightful utterances of his which have won their way into every Canadian heart, will all appear in this brilliant and splendid volume. Every one will wish to possess these golden orations, these carefully worded addresses, and bright and attractive speeches. Their reputation is world-wide, and no library in Canada can by any means be complete without them."—Publishers Circular.

STEWART (Geo. Jr.)—The Story of the Great Fire in St. John, N.B., June 20th, 1877. With maps and numerous illustrations. By GEO. STEWART, Jr., of St. John, N.B. Cloth, $1.

"Its author is Mr. George Stewart, Jr., of St. John, who certainly deserves credit for the terse and graphic manner in which he has executed his self-imposed task. In order to show what the inhabitants have undergone by the great devastation which swallowed up about two-thirds of the city, the author gives a sketch of its history for the past hundred years."—Sarnia Observer.

THAT WIFE OF MINE. By the author of "That Husband of Mine." Crown 8vo. Paper, 15c.

"Really a very interesting story."—Boston Globe.

"This novel is from the pen of the prolific writer, Anthony Trollope, and is very highly spoken of by the British press."—Hamilton Times.

"For this clever story the author gives a pleasantly drawn picture of village life in France, and the 'course of true love' of its hero and heroine is traced with a skillful touch. There is a charming simplicity in the narrative, which at the same time is sufficiently romantic for ordinary novel readers."—Toronto Mail.

"The works of Mr. Trollope have a particular charm for the general reader, and 'Lady Anna' we are sure will prove no exception to the general rule. It is a well-written novel, and the plot well worked up."—Brant Union.

"His novels have always been, and will doubtless continue to be, prime favourites with the fair. In the novel reading body politic, women suffrage not only prevails but dominates, and, therefore, Mr. Trollope will never fail so long as he charms the majority of the electorate. The present work is graphic and interesting. The novel altogether is refreshing reading."—The Canadian Monthly.

TROLLOPE (A.)—The American Senator. By ANTHONY TROLLOPE, author of "The Prime Minister," "The Way we Live now," "Orley Farm," etc., etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00 Paper Covers, 50c.

"For subtlety of thought, carefulness of literary execution, delicate and firm delineation of character and motive, and accurate elucidation of the springs of action exhibited by its leading actors, it is unsurpassed in this branch of English literature."—The Canadian Monthly.

The world has been eagerly waiting for some years for a Life of Pope Pius the Ninth, and here we have it. It is, as the author remarks in his opening chapter, the history of the Pope, and not of the man.

Mr. Trollope's hand, as we have long known, is uncramped; and the work before us gives no evidence of contracted sentiment. It is written with a freedom and fearlessness, tempered with such an evident desire to be just that it cannot fail to command readers of all shades of opinion in regard to the patriarchal occupant of the Pontifical Chair.

It can be safely recommended to all classes of readers, as certain to afford much exact information and entertainment.

UNCLE HERBERT—My Primer. Edited by UNCLE HERBERT, Editor of "The Prattler," "My Pet Book," and "My Own Book." 8vo; 48 pages, 76 illustrations, Boards, Cloth Back, Illuminated sides. Price 30c.

We have here a book for the very young children. The first ten pages consists of an illustrated alphabet, the balance of the work is comprised of short sketches in large type, with a suitable illustration to each one.

UNCLE HERBERT—My Pet Book. Edited by UNCLE HERBERT, Editor of "The Prattler," "My Own Book," and "My Primer." 8vo; 96 pages, 90 Illustrations. Boards, Cloth Back, Illuminated sides. Price 50c.

This work, as its name applies, is intended for children that love "Pets" of all kinds, and they are not few.

The letter-press is full of all manner of good things in prose and verse—some for the very little ones, some for the older

In fact "My Pet book," with its pleasant reading and its more than ninety illustrations, is one of the best books for children, altogether amusing and delightful.

UNCLE HERBERT—My Own Book. Edited by UNCLE HERBERT, Editor of "The Prattler," "My Primer" and "My Pet Book." 8vo., 144 pages, 80 illustrations. Boards, Cloth back, Illuminated sides, 70c.

This book is expressly got up for children who find "The Prattler" too far advanced. The greater part of the reading in "My Own Book" is in short and easy words, and in short and easy sentences. It contains nothing but what is really good.

UNCLE HERBERT—The Prattler. A beautifully illustrated story book for boys and girls. 280 pages, 150 full page illustrations. Boards, Embossed Cloth back, Illuminated Cover, 90c; Cloth, gold and black, and Chromo on Side, $1.25.

There is no more beautiful book for boys and girls in the market than this. The illustrations have been executed in the highest style of the art, and are entirely new, while the letter-press printing would do credit to any English or American publishing house.

WARNER (C. D.)—Mummies and Moslems; or, My Winter on the Nile. By CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER. Crown 8vo 480 pages. Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 50c.

"Warner's powers of observation, and the keen sense of humour which pervades every page, cannot fail to give both information and pleasure."—Perth Expositor.

WILKINS (H. A.)—Wayside Flowers. By HARRIET ANNIE WILKINS, with a preface by the REV. WILLIAM STEVENSON. Cloth, $1.00.

"As a rule one is apt to look somewhat askance at volumes of fugitive poetry' but in the present case to read is to admire. As the preface says with perfect truth' there is a delicacy, a beauty, a tenderness, together with a rich hue of thought, pervading all the authoress has written. We have seldom seen a collection which, without pretence, embodies so much grace and cultivation. The book is an honor to Canadian literature, and it deserves to be circulated wherever accurate taste and poetical skill are appreciated."—The Spectator.

WATSON (S. J.)—The Legend of the Roses, and Ravlan. A Drama. By S. J. WATSON. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.50.

"The 'Legend of the Roses' bears unmistakable evidence of having been written by one well qualified to beautify the prose story by the adornment of metrical verse. It has the clearly defined melody of song and the choice and graceful language of the cultured scholar and poet. Mr. Watson's reputation as a poet and clever writer will be enhanced by his poem of 'The Legend of the Roses,' and we welcome, with great pleasure, his valuable contribution to Canadian literature."—The Mail.

WOOD (Mrs. H.)—Parkwater. By Mrs. HENRY WOOD, author of "East Lynne," "The Channings," etc., etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 75c; Paper, 50c.

This is the last work of this gifted authoress.

"Who has not read with rare delight the novels of Augusta Evans? Her strange, wonderful, and fascinating style; the profound depths to which she sinks the probe into human nature, touching its most sacred cords and springs; the intense interest thrown around her characters, and the very marked peculiarities of her principal figures, conspire to give an unusual interest to the works of this eminent Southern authoress."—New York Times.

WILSON (Mrs.) St. Elmo. By AUGUSTA J. EVANS WILSON, author of "Infelice," Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Linen, $1.00.

"It is truly a most delightful and agreeable work."—Guelph Herald.

"'St. Elmo' is truly a most delightful and agreeable work."—Toronto National.

WILSON (Mrs.)—Beulah. By AUGUSTA J. EVANS WILSON, author of "Infelice," "St. Elmo," etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.25; Linen, $1.00.

"A novel of great power and character; rich in description and full of thrilling interest. It is unquestionably a vigorous story."—New York Tribune.

WHITTIER (J. G.)—The New Poems of JEAN INGELow, J. G. WHITTIER, and H. W. LONGFELLOW. Containing "Mabel Martin." By J. G. WHITTIER. Cloth, elegant, $1.00; Boards 50c.

"These gems reveal the richness of Whittier's mind, and the extraordinary breadth of his imagery. They show also how true to nature he can be, and how charming is the genius he displays in these poems. All that is tender and gentle in the poet comes out with surprising fluency and beauty."—Evenings in the Library, by George Stewart, Jr.

SUPPLEMENTARY CATALOGUE.

A VOYAGE IN THE SUNBEAM. Our Home on the Ocean for Eleven Months. By MRS. BRASSEY. With 118 illustrations and coloured map. Demy 8vo. Cloth, $3.00. Cloth, gilt edges, $3.50. Half Morocco, $4.50. Full Morocco, $6.00.

This Edition is the same as Longman's English Edition, which sells at $10.50 in cloth. Read what Appleton's Journal says of the work:—

"Next to the pleasure and instructiveness of making such a voyage must be ranked the satisfaction of reading such an account of it; and while Mrs. Brassey's work will receive a permanent place among the best literature of travel, its repose on the library shelf will be broken, we venture to think, by more frequent repurchases than the majority of our so-called favourites usually obtain."

A MODERN SYMPOSIUM, Subjects: The Soul and Future Life. By MR. FREDERIC HARRISON, PROF. HUXLEY, LORD BLACHFORD, MR. W. R. GREG, REV. BALDWIN BROWN, and others. The Influence upon Morality of a Decline in Religious Belief. By SIR JAMES FITZ-JAMES STEPHENS, PROF. CLIFFORD, LORD SHELBORNE, REV. DR. MARTINEAU, The DEAN OF ST. PAUL'S, The DUKE OF ARGYLE, and others. One vol. Crown 8vo. Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"We predict that the 'Symposium' will be a marked book for years to come. It is not a series of speculations, nor of sensational tales that feed the imagination for a passing hour, but is made up of contributions by some of the ablest writers now living, upon subjects the deepest and most momentous that ever engaged the attention of the human mind, and it is no extravagance to say that, taken all in all, it is one of the noblest efforts in human thought that has been made since the dawn of civilization."—St. Thomas Times.

A FIRST BOOK ON THE THEORY OF MUSIC. By LOUISA GIBSON. 8vo. Stiff Covers, 40c.

From G. A. MACFARREN, Esq., Principal Royal Academy of Music, London, Cambridge University.

"'A First Book on the Theory of Music,' by Miss Louisa Gibson, is a clear explanation of elementary matters essential to a pianist. Some points which have been obscured by the misrepresentations and vulgarisms of former works of the kind are herein rendered quite distinct, and the book may be safely accepted as an authority. The examples and rules happily illustrate each."

"DEAR MADAM :—

I think your little work thoroughly capable of bringing about the object you have in view.

Believe me, yours faithfully,

J. STAINER."

ANSWERS TO HIS CRITICS. By CANON FARRAR; and Criticisms on "Eternal Hope," by A. J. B. BERESFORD HOPE, M.D., and REV. PROF. MAYOR; also "Is the Hope of Personal Immortality a Selfish Hope?" by REV. W. R. G. MELLEN. Paper Covers, 25c.

BELFORD'S MONTHLY. Vols. 1, 2 and 3. Cloth, $2.00 each.

POGANUC PEOPLE. By MRS. HARRIET BEECHER STOWE. Author of “Betty's Bright Idea,” “Uncle Tom's Cabin,” etc. Crown 8vo. With illustrations. Cloth, $1.00. Paper Covers, 50c.

“This book illustrates Mrs. Stowe's attractive style, being witty and merry with a wholesome humour, while made effective as a picture with the national tone of the more sombre colours and shadows of life, and with its varied dramatic elements.”—Publisher's Circular.

PHONOGRAPH AND ITS FUTURE, The By THOMAS A. EDISON, the Inventor. The Auriphone. By ANON. On the Hypothesis that Animals are Automata. By PROFESSOR. HUXLEY. Crown 8vo. Paper Covers, price 25c.

PHYSICAL LIFE OF WOMAN, The. By DR. G. H. NAPHEYS, A.M., M.D. Cloth, neat, $1.00.

"Society owes a debt of gratitude to this brave and scientific physician for the unexceptional way in which he has performed a work that has, up to the publication of this book, been a paramount need, not to be satisfied anywhere in the English language. If the volume contained only the chapter on the influence of the mother's mind upon her unborn child, we would recommend its purchase by every family in the land."—New York Christian Union.

RAILROAD MAPS (Rand McNally & Co.) of Ontario, Quebec, and the Maritime Provinces. Cloth, 60c. Paper, 50c.

These maps are the most complete railroad maps published, and are bound in neat form suitable to be carried in the pocket.

SCIENCE AND THEOLOGY, and Other Essays. Fine Cloth, $1.00.

"A most readable book."—Times.

SUPERNATURAL RELIGION. An Enquiry into the Reality of Divine Revelation. Reprinted from the Sixth English Edition. Three volumes in two. Cloth, gilt top, $2.25 per vol. Half Calf, $3.50 per vol. In one large volume, $4.00.

This Edition is complete, and the only revised and corrected American Edition, with Index. The Boston Edition sells at $13.50, and the English Edition at $15.00, making OUR EDITION ONE-THIRD THE PRICE of any other.

J. T. SUNDERLAND, in his book, "What is the Bible?" says:

"Supernatural Religion, a critical examination of the New Testament, aiming to test the validity of the Supernatural element in Christianity. The ablest English work of New Testament criticism that has been produced."

'Twas IN TRAFALGAR'S BAY. By BESANT & RICE. Paper Covers, 25c.

This novel is from the pen of the prolific writers, Besant & Rice, and is very highly spoken of by the press.

UNDER ONE ROOF. By JAMES PAYN. Author of "Lost Sir Massingberd," "Walter's Word," etc. Cloth, $1.00. Paper Covers, 50c.

Mr. Payn's novels are always extremely good. This, his latest, is one of his best, and will undoubtedly be widely popular."—Toronto Mail.
